8. Read the passage below and answer the questions in full sentences.

My name is Immy. I live with my parents in Wakiso. We keep domestic animals in our home. We have cows, goats, sheep and rabbits.

We care for these animals by looking for grass and water for them.

We always take the cows, sheep and goats uphill to graze. After that we drive them to a nearby swamp in the valley to drink water.

My father built a big kraal of our cows. The sheep and the goats sleep in pens. We clean all these places every day. Sometimes, we smoke the kraal to reduce mosquitoes from biting the animals. We have built a hutch for our rabbits to sleep in. we give them leaves to eat every day.

We protect our animals from dangerous animals like lions and hynas.

We have two dogs which guard our domestic animals at night. Whenever the dogs see a strange animal, they bark to alert us of the danger. When our animals fall sick, we call a veterinary doctor to treat them.

Questions

- a) Mention the animals Immy's parents keep.

b) Why do they smoke the kraal?
