Esther and Jauharah had a very bitter argument one evening in the dormitory. It lasted two hours. The argument started when Jauharah said that computers have viruses. This shocked Esther. She wondered how a machine could get viruses yet it doesn't have blood and veins. "Who infects computers with the so called Virus?" She asked Jauharah tried to explain in details. This made one of the room members to intervene because they had started shouting for other room members who were revising. She said to Esther, "Ignorance is no defence." She then told both of them to go to their teacher of English for better explanation the next day.

Very early in the morning on Monday, Esther and Jauharah went to their teacher of English. They went with two other girls. "Excuse us Mr. Masamba, we would like to find out something from you," said one of them. The teacher permitted them. "Is it true that computers have viruses?" asked Esther. The teacher answered in support of Jauharah. He went further and said that the viruses in the computer are hidden instructions which destroy data. He also added that the virus is put in a computer by the manufacturer. Besides that, he also taught them other words like "surfing" and gogging". The girls went back happy.
